Time:	6-8pm
Weather:	Overcast, spitting /drizzle, a little windy
Situation:	In the car park of Truro college, opposite the take-away and shop
Councillor Assistance:	Cllr Ellis & Truro City Clerk Roger Gazzard.
Comment:	The majority of course were annoyed about the Langarth site, but were keen to take part. Leaflets had recently been distributed door to door by Cllrs. 50% of those attending the trailer said they had one at home or had already filled it in.
Completed forms:	5
Taken away by the public:	23
Taken away:	30 left at Truro Leisure Centre @ the pool reception
Busiest time:	7.15-8
Refusing to discuss:	0 (Note: not just busy and keeping walking, but against the idea)
Common themes:	Ranked in order of frequency: 1. People were aware of the planning issues along the A390 2. People were annoyed about the dramatic changes to the Truro & Kenwyn area
Opinion:	Due to the attendance being advertised people came with intentions to discuss the plan. The site was very quiet and the only passers by were people on their way to the take-away or shop.
